

PTSO January 19, 2022 Meeting Minutes

Approval of November Meeting Minutes: Approved

Mrs. Herman: Open House: looking forward to open house Sunday and Thursday. The neon art projects look incredible. Current families should attend the open house as well. Pasta dinner pickup Sunday. Set up spirit wear sale and drama club bake sale during open house.

Ms. D: Grandparent lunch Monday February 14th 11:00am. Run by students: orchestra, catering, decorations. Asking for PTSO funding for the event.

8th Grade: Rachele-pasta dinner fundraiser for DC on January 30th. Largest fundraiser for the DC trip. Pre-orders, day of orders, drive up pickup. Have 180 cookbooks to sell. Inquired about potentially selling Spring dress down passes.

Discussion of possible Grandparent event for the entire school. Mrs. Herman, Jen Goldsmith, Megan McCormick to connect and plan.

Catholic Schools Week Jan 30th-Feb 4th: PTSO will provide a teacher luncheon (TBD). Sending a sign-up genius to ask for volunteers to cover the classrooms. Knights of Columbus free throw contest Feb 1st. 8th grade Olympics, Reptile Show.

Request that parents be notified of 8th grade Olympics “colors” in advance of the day.

Valentine’s Flower and Candy Grams: PTSO and Jr. High collaborating this year. Option of sending flowers or candy or both. Looking for additional volunteers to help assemble on Friday, February 11th.

Dine to Donate: 5 Guys coming up on Feb. 22nd. Welcoming ideas for partner locations for next year.

Father Daughter: Meghan Blubaugh/Jen Garisek- First event bringing everyone together w/Covid restrictions. Soliciting opinions regarding holding the traditional event in the gym, possibly renting out the movie theater, Adrenaline Monkey.

Foertmeyer & Sons Spring Plant Sale: Kickoff Feb 28th. Orders online through March 14th. Delivery date in May before Mother’s Day

Mother Son Event: Amy Bashein is looking for a co-chair. Event is on March 4th. Cavs Scream Team. DJ, Photo Booth, Raffles etc.

Square 1 Art: All digital again. Amber Polisen is chair.

New Family Welcoming Committee: Mary Endsley: ambassador families have been asked to reach out to their families to invite them to the Black & Red Ball and Pasta Dinner. Google forms will go out to ask for volunteer ambassador families for next year. Potentially include pre-school next year. Sending Google survey for feedback.

